

FAIRFAX COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

ACTIVITY REPORT

AUGUST 20, 2010

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH AUGUST 18, 2010

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

There are three sections in this report: Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section II: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section III: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that a news release was distributed on that offense.

CONSUMPTION OR POSSESSION OF ALCOHOL/ARREST: Police responded to a noise complaint the 8500 block of Richmond Highway around 1:32 a.m. on Tuesday, August 17. After a brief investigation, a 17-year-old boy was issued a summons for underage consumption or possession of alcohol and a 19-year-old man was arrested for allegedly purchasing alcohol for the minor and assaulting a law enforcement officer. Yusab Joshi, of 8577 Richmond Highway, was charged with assault on a law enforcement officer, contributing to the delinquency of a minor and obstruction of justice.

ROBBERY/CREDIT CARD FRAUD: Fairfax County Crime Solvers is seeking the public's assistance in identifying and locating the man responsible for robbing a woman and later using her credit cards. On Wednesday, July 14 around 4:05 p.m. a 61-year-old woman exited her car in the 1700 block of Macon Street in the McLean area. A man approached the woman and attempted to grab her purse. After a brief struggle, he took the purse and fled. Later that same day, the suspect used the victim's credit card to make several fraudulent purchases at stores in the area. Store surveillance video captured that suspect using the credit card at a store in the 7000 block of Columbia Pike.

Further investigation determined this same suspect may be responsible for a similar incident in the City of Alexandria: http://alexandriava.gov/police/info/news_policedisplay.aspx?id=35932 Detectives are hopeful someone will recognize the man in these pictures. The suspect is described as white, 30 to 40 years old. He is about 5 feet 9 inches tall with a thin build. He is bald and has a light-colored goatee. The photos are available online at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org. Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS(8477), e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES(274637). A $100 to $1,000 cash reward will be paid for information that leads to an arrest. As always, callers never have to give their names or appear in court. Find us on Facebook.

BURGLARY/POSSESSION OF BURGLARIOUS TOOLS/ARREST: Police arrested a man after allegedly breaking into the Chesterbrook Elementary School, 1753 Kirby Road, around 4:36 a.m. on Sunday, August 15. Jonathan P. Miller, 31, of 6255 Park Road in McLean, was arrested and charged with burglary and possession of burglarious tools.

MASON DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 4)

TAKING INDECENT LIBERTIES WITH A MINOR/ARREST: Police arrested a 45-year-old man after he allegedly exposed himself to a 6-year-old girl who was waiting for a bus with her mother at a bus stop in the Falls Church area last week. The incident reportedly took place near 6298 Seven Corners Center Thursday, August 12 just before 2 p.m. Jose Ricardo Rivera, address unknown, fled from the bus stop, but was located nearby and charged with taking indecent liberties with a child. He was transported to the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center. Detectives believe that there may be additional witnesses in this case and ask that anyone with information contact police at Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES/274637 or call Fairfax County Police at 703-691-2131. To speak with an investigator in Spanish, please contact Detective John Farrell at 703-246-4059.

LARCENY/ASSAULT: A man assaulted two men, ages 22 and 34, working at the 7-Eleven at 4131 Little River Turnpike on Friday, August 13 around 8:25 p.m. The suspect was attempting to steal several cartons of cigarettes. When the victims tried to stop him, he assaulted them and fled without the cigarettes. He was described as white, about 5 feet 9 inches tall, with dark hair, a medium build and a tattoo on his upper right arm. He fled in a silver, four-door Toyota. The victims did not require medical attention.

ROBBERY: Two men assaulted and robbed a 21-year-old man around 12:45 a.m. on Wednesday, August 18. The suspects assaulted the victim and took cash before fleeing. The victim was transported to the hospital and treated for minor injuries.

RESTON DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 5)

No major incidents reported.

FRANCONIA DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 6)

GRAND LARCENY/ARREST: Police arrested two 16-year-old boys for allegedly stealing a 2008 Honda Pilot some time between 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, August 11 and 5 a.m. the following day. An officer pulled up on a traffic crash and discovered one of the vehicles involved had been reported stolen. The suspects reportedly attempted to flee from officers but were apprehended. Petitions for grand larceny will be obtained.

ATTEMPTED BANK ROBBERY: On Wednesday, August 11 around noon, three men entered the Union Bank located at 6975 Springfield Boulevard in Springfield, in what appears to be a robbery attempt. The three men entered the first set of doors for the bank and put on masks. A metal detector inside the doorway was activated and the second set of doors into the bank automatically locked. The three men attempted to enter the bank but were unsuccessful so they then left on foot. No one was injured. The three men were described as black and around 6 feet tall. One was wearing a lime-green shirt and a baseball cap and a second was wearing a white shirt and baseball cap.

UPDATE: MALICIOUS WOUNDING: Police arrested one suspect involved in this case on Friday, August 13. Jose E. Fuentes, 20, of 5734 Backlick Road in Springfield, was charged with malicious wounding and use of a firearm in the commission of a felony.

A 45-year-old man was injured after he was struck with a pellet gun projectile around 11 a.m. on Tuesday, August 10. The victim was outside speaking with a friend in the 6200 block of Backlick Road when a red Nissan Sentra pulled up to them. The front-seat passenger called out to them and when the victim looked at the car, the front-seat passenger reportedly shot him with a pellet gun. One projectile struck the victim in his eye. The three occupants in the car fled. The victim was transported to the hospital for treatment of his non life-threatening injury.

ROBBERY: A 40-year-old man was robbed of cash in the 6300 block of Amherst Avenue at 10:12 p.m. on Thursday, August 12. The suspect was described as black, 6 feet tall and between 30 to 35 years old. The victim received injuries from a brief struggle, but declined medical treatment.

TAKING INDECENT LIBERTIES WITH A MINOR/ARREST: A 26-year-old man was apprehended yesterday after he reportedly sexually assaulted a teenager left home alone. Police were called to a home on Plaskett Forest Lane at 3:30 p.m. on Monday, August 16. They determined a 14-year-old girl was home alone when she answered a knock at her front door. She was met by a man selling cleaning products. He entered the house and asked to use the bathroom. Upon exiting the bathroom, he allegedly sexually assaulted her. Numerous patrol officers, detectives, K9 teams and the helicopter saturated the area. Residents in the community provided police detailed information on a group of solicitors in the neighborhood selling carpet cleaning products. Around 10 p.m. a vehicle fitting the descriptions given by residents was stopped in the area. Officers identified one of the nine occupants as the suspect.

Tommy Lee Harmon of Greensboro, North Carolina, was charged with one count of taking indecent liberties with a minor. The investigation is ongoing and further charges are possible.

Harmon was part of a group of solicitors with Pumpers Trust – Mrs. Clean Pump-it-Off Company, based out of South Carolina. Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text “TIP187” plus your message to CRIMES/274637 or call Fairfax County Police at 703-691-2131. Fairfax County requires that all peddlers and solicitors be licensed before they solicit door to door. The Fairfax County Department of Cable and Consumer Services has information about door-to-door solicitations and licensing requirements online.

WEST SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 7)

UNLAWFUL ENTRY/ARREST: A 14-year-old boy was arrested for allegedly unlawfully entering Old Creek Elementary School, 9524 Old Creek Drive, around 10:58 p.m. on Friday, August 13. Nothing was missing from inside and there was no apparent damage. A petition for unlawful entry will be obtained.

FAIR OAKS DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 8)

FRAUD/FLIM FLAM: Police have determined that two other victims have been scammed out of their money by at least two suspects claiming to have a winning lottery ticket. The most recent was on Friday, July 9, when a 45-year-old man relinquished nearly $15,000 in cash to two men he met at a gas station believing he would receive a percentage of the lottery winnings. One suspect was described as having a heavy accent and an olive-skinned complexion. He was about 45 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall, with a heavy build and short, light brown hair. He wore a chain necklace with a two-inch cross on it. The second suspect was described as possibly Brazilian, with a darker complexion. He was about 5 feet 2 inches tall and between 35 and 45 years old and 140 to 155 pounds.

On Friday, May 12, two suspects used the lottery ticket scam to gain $2,000 from a 62-year-old man they approached in the parking lot of a grocery store in the 7600 block of Richmond Highway. The suspects in this case were described as black, about 5 feet 9 inches tall and between 150 to 165 pounds. One suspect was about 40 years old and the other was between 22 and 25 years old. Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text “TIP187” plus your message to CRIMES/274637 or call Fairfax County Police at 703-691-2131.

MAKING AN OBSCENE SEXUAL DISPLAY/ARREST: Police arrested a 59-year-old registered sex offender after he allegedly exposed and touched himself in the toy section of WalMart at 13059 Fair Lakes Shopping Center. The incident occurred on Sunday, August 8 around 8 p.m. A store employee reported observing a man watching children in the toy area of the store. The suspect would allegedly crouch down and wait until all adults left the area prior to committing the offenses. Jerome A. Fleming, 6005 Rosebud Lane, was charged with making an obscene sexual display and transported to the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center. Detectives believe that there may be additional witnesses in this case and ask that anyone with information contact police at Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text “TIP187” plus your message to CRIMES/274637 or call Fairfax County Police at 703-691-2131.

ANIMAL CONTROL DIVISION

RABIES TESTING: Animal Control officers collected a fox for rabies testing from the 10900 block of Hunter Station Road around 1:33 p.m. on Thursday, August 12. Two dogs, a Blue Heeler and a Blue Heeler/Rottweiler mix, that came into contact with the fox were given a rabies booster and quarantined for 45 days.

RABIES CLINIC: The Fairfax County Animal Shelter will take its low-cost rabies vaccination clinic on the road hosting its low-cost rabies clinic at the Sully District Governmental Center, 4900 Stonecroft Boulevard in Chantilly, on Sunday, August 22 between 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. The cost for rabies shots at the clinic is $12.00 per dog, cat or ferret. All pets will receive a one-year rabies vaccine. To obtain a three-year vaccine, citizens must bring their pet's rabies certificate showing the animal's current rabies vaccination and vaccination expiration date. Rabies certificates will be issued, no tags. All dogs should be on leashes and all cats and ferrets should be in carriers. Fairfax County 2010 dog licenses will be sold separately at the clinic and cost $10.00 per dog. Cash or checks only will be accepted at the clinic. No credit cards.

The clinic is a partnership with the office of Fairfax County Board Supervisor Michael R. Frey and is being hosted by the Fairfax County Animal Shelter and Deepwood Veterinary Hospital. For more information about the rabies clinic at the Sully District Governmental Center, please call (703) 830-1100.
